The final Sunday of the Lenten Season engages us in a full dress rehearsal for the liturgies of the great Three Days (Triduum) about to be celebrated. Mass begins with a commemoration of Jesus' entry into Jerusalem. He arrives humbly on a donkey. Although acclaimed enthusiastically with palm branches, he comes in peace and subverts popular expectations of a political messiah.

Farewell

In this coming week we say goodbye, with great sadness, to Corenna Rooke and her husband Simon, who will be heading to Wellington for Simon's naval posting. Corenna has been our Parish Secretary for the last 3 years, working with Fathers John Tollan, John O'Connor, and now Fr Neil. Recently the role has included liaison with St Leo's School, where Corenna has continued a very active involvement following her own daughters' education over the last 13 years. Corenna has also been a volunteer in the Parish Sacramental programme, the Children's Liturgy, and is a member of the Parish Pastoral Council.
 We will miss Corenna's warm presence in the Parish Office and we wish the Rookes Godspeed as they embark on this new chapter of their lives.

St Leo's Catholic School

Kindness | Confidence | Integrity | Excellence

Nga mihi nui kia koutou and a warm St Leo's greeting to you all

HOSANNA!!!! - Hosanna in the highest, blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord, Hosanna in the highest!

This Sunday, at Palm Sunday, we greet our Lord, waving our palms with shouts of joy. Such triumph, mere days away from the darkness of Peter's triple denial, our failure to "stay awake", agony among the plants in the garden; human frailties following hard on the heels of enthusiastic praise.

It is tempting to think we would have done better than the disciples, but the reality is probably not. They represent us and mirror us; full of good intentions but less able to see them through.

We pray that Covid settings allow us to gather on Palm Sunday, and to put aside our fears of being among crowds. The children at the school are at the start of their journey in faith. We pray that journey continues throughout their lives.

God bless you all

Acting Principal
