DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY

EASTER HOPE

Warmest thanks to all those who contributed to our beautiful celebrations of the great feast of Easter : the Liturgy Committee for the design of the Triduum liturgies, culminating in the Vigil and Morning Masses, those who sang, played, read and served, and our Sacristans for dealing with all the details. All of this goes unremarked when it goes so smoothly, but without those combined efforts our celebrations would be the poorer.

Thank you all.

An invitation

from the Parish Pastoral Council....

Have you read Fr Neil's book yet? He asks "But what is the church for? What is the mission of the local church?" David

Tennent, reviewing the book in the Liturgy

magazine, says, "...he develops a vision of the mission of the local church that is both inspirational and achievable....I recommend this book to anyone seeking authentic ways to contribute to the work of their local church community."

Stephen Bevans of the Catholic Theological Union says it may be the best book you will read this year, and you will be inspired and changed". After Mass today books will be available for sale ($30) and some to borrow. As we continue our work on Mission, this is an important opportunity.

Sunday Mass Online

The diocese broadcasts

Sunday Mass to the Youtube

channel Auckland Catholic www.youtube.com/channel.

It is uploaded at 5.30pm

Saturday night (as per a Vigil Mass time) Mass will also be broadcast on Shine TV Sundays at 2.00pm Free-to-air

TV Channel 25, SKY TV Channel 201.

The forty days of Lent give way to the fifty days of Easter. Each Sunday focuses on some part of the Easter mystery. This is known as a 'mystagogical catechesis' for the newly baptised at Easter and for the whole church. Together, we reflect on the presence of the risen Lord in our midst.

SECOND SUNDAY OF EASTER

John 20:19-31 Eight days later, Jesus came.
