

Week ending 5 September 2025

The North Harbour Foundry finished making a mould for the niche plug.

First, they built a wooden mould. Then, they used that to make a reverse sand mould, which in turn let them pour the aluminium mould.

Now, concrete plugs are being made from that mould.

These plugs will be used to seal each niche.

Wooden Mould

Reverse Sand Mould

Aluminum pour

Aluminum mould

Finished plug